Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN) Emergency Shelter Program:The Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN) Emergency Shelter Program temporarily and compassionately shelters families who are experiencing homelessness. The program provides shelter, food, crisis intervention, financial assistance, and intensive case management to prepare the families for long-term economic self-sufficiency. This program is provided in partnership with the interfaith community. The IHN Emergency Shelter Program served thirteen unduplicated families representing 44 individuals in FY21-22. Eight of the thirteen households obtained affordable housing and two returned to stay with friends or family. Three households remained in the program during FY21-22. The two remaining households graduated within 3 weeks after our year end to affordable housing.The Graduate Self Sufficiency Program FPML provides an array of diversion services to families who have graduated from our IHN Emergency Shelter. The Graduate Self Sufficiency Program, diversion services include temporary emergency financial assistance for such things as cell phone bills, utility bills, rental assistance, and basic goods, landlord/tenant mediation, negotiating with utility companies, and on-going, intensive comprehensive case management. During FY21-22 eighteen households were enrolled in the program for a total of 64 individuals. Prevention Program:Designed specifically for Montgomery County families facing imminent eviction, our Prevention Program provides rental cash assistance alongside prevention case management, including such services as negotiating with landlords, budget counseling and maximizing sources of income, including employment opportunities and connection to all eligible benefits; and continued negotiation with landlords to ensure once rent is paid eviction proceedings will stop. A total of thirty-one households for a total of 126 individuals. Intensive Case Management:Our Emergency Shelter service immediately stabilizes a family and puts them on a goal-directed plan towards permanent housing, mitigating the risks of homelessness, while our Diversion and Prevention services empower families to continue accessing and self-advocating for community resources that will support long-term stability and economic self-sufficiency. At the heart of these programs is person-centered, client-driven, case management.The housing and social services system is complex. Without help, families struggle to identify, understand, coordinate, and organize the resources they need. The success of our families can be contributed to the intensive, in-person case management we provide.
